REQUEST TO CONSIDER PETITION PREVIOUSLY FILED

Assistant Commissioner for Patents
Washington, D.C. 20231

Dear Sir:

On September 21, 1991, a Petition to Accept Photographs, along with 3 copies of 2 sheets of photographs mounted on bristol board, and the requisite petition fee of $130.00 was submitted to the PTO. The attached postcard bearing the PTO mailroom stamp indicates receipt of the petition and attachments.

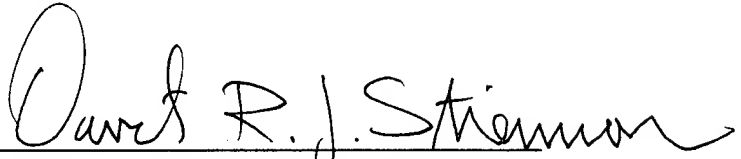

However, in the Notice of Draftsperson's Patent Drawing Review which accompanied the September 19, 1996, Action of Examiner Melius, it was indicated that photographs were not acceptable until the Petition was considered. Up to this time, applicant has received no notice

Applicant: Darrel L. Turner
Application No.: 08/532,046
Art Unit: 3616

that the Petition has been considered.

Applicant requests that the Commissioner take up the Petition at this time, and favorable action thereon is respectfully requested.

Respectfully submitted,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "David R.J. Stiennon". The signature is written in black ink and is positioned above a horizontal line.
